

The events of 2350 MAPLEWOOD BEND twist and turn as they unfold against the backdrop of an idyllic suburban neighborhood with its share of dirty secrets. There's not a soul left unaffected or untarnished when a serial killer with a penchant for turning his victims into artistic shrines abducts picture-perfect teenager Gwen Berry. In a twist of fate, a fledgling serial killer - eager to live out his basement fantasies - abducts both Gwen and her obsessed shrine builder for his own special purpose. Alongside the suburban streets neighbors, schoolmates, husbands and wives, random strangers and even the police detectives working the case, reveal their dark sides, their hopes and ambitions, their dirty little secrets. The events keep twisting and turning until it all ends in the culmination of one man's destiny to follow his true nature. This Cinematic Novel is written in the style of a screenplay with just enough technical jargon to keep the story as fast paced and exciting as a filmed experience without hindering the reader.
