

How many horrible things can happen to a person, before they finally crack, and their soul ultimately becomes torn? At sixteen years old, where most girls would be worrying about failing their drivers test, or passing school, she had more troublesome matters to deal with. It was because she wasn't like ordinary girls. She was dead. After a bullet stole her life on one October morning, with the assistance of her best friend, and the love of her life, she has found the person responsible. And while other girls her age were worrying about getting their life off to good start, she was trying to keep the Demon who had possessed her not to kill anyone. Now, after being sent to Limbo to prevent the Demon from doing so, she is fighting to get back to the land of the living, to save her loved ones. With a deadly secret boiling to the surface, her best friend Amber is the only living soul that may have a chance to help her. With her own agenda being pursued, will she make the right choice? Or will both Amber and Mark, be sent to limbo, due to a unseen danger, they thought had been long put to rest?
