

In the beginning, God separated light from darkness. He has never looked back. This collection of collections of much of my early writings reveals a transcendent journey. It maps out how patiently and faithfully the Lord our God has mercifully fashioned me to be a part of the light that He continues to draw out of the darkness. I will praise Him and thank Him forever because He has done it. This is the first part of my Christian witness, which is completed with No Guts, No Glory: A Messianic Psalter. (Mature Content)
