

Let me do what I want. He whispered. For a long moment I stared up at him in the blue dark and felt terror, like a million shards of glass slicing through my veins. And then he did what I desperately didn't want him to do. He lay down beside me. His heart thumped against my chest. Then he moved his mouth to mine and connected the dark between us. When school boy Craig falls in love with his friend Christian, he discovers a haunting love that must remain a secret in their small English village. But it's a love he can never forget. The Boy I Loved is the first in the Christian and Craig Novellas.
