

The Little Book is a forty year journey of listening, studying and speaking that resulted in the last five years of writing and rewriting. It is not my intention to be a doom and gloom calamity howler and I wish more than anything to be in the wrong concerning these difficult times that lie ahead. Nonetheless, taking all things into account I felt concerned for your well being that you should be informed, in case the future does unfold as predicted in the scriptures. The Little Book is a study guide as well as an instruction manual.
